John Hancock—"Father of the Revolution"

UPON the Declaration of Independence his name may be read without spectacle. His signature was the first subscribed to the world's most famous State document. In the most realistic sense John Hancock pledged his life and his fortune to the cause of the Revolution. He was one of the richest men in the colonies, holding investments in banks, breweries, stores, hotels, and also owning a fleet of vessels. The sequestration of one of these precipitated the Boston massacre. In Revolutionary days and until his death he was a popular idol. When it was proposed to bombard Boston, though it would have resulted in greater personal loss to him than to any other property owner, he begged that no regard be paid to him because of his financial interests. While Hancock did not sign the Constitution of the United States, he had his great influence in its behalf, which awakened the gratitude of Washington. "He was prepossessing in manner, and passionately fond of the elegant pleasures of life, of dancing, music, concerts, routs, assemblies, card parties, rich wines, social dinners and festivities." Until the end of his life the people of Massachusetts loved to honor him. In the stirring events preceding the Revolution he was one of the most influential members of the Sons of Liberty. To this tireless worker for American Independence Liberty was the very breath of life. He would have frowned upon any legislation which would restrict the natural rights of man, and would have voted NO to prohibition enactments. It was upon the tenets of our National Spoken Word that Anheuser-Busch 18 years ago founded the great first institution. To-day throughout the length and breadth of the Free Republic their honest brews are famed for quality, purity, mildness and exquisite flavor. Their brand BUDWEISER has daily grown in popularity until 7500 people are daily required to meet the demand. Its sales exceed any other beer by millions of bottles. ANHEUSER-BUSCH, ST. LOUIS, U. S. A.

Flavors in St. Louis are constantly brewed in larger quantities than elsewhere.

Messages From the Cross

By REV. GEORGE E. CHILDS
Bible Teacher, Evangelist, and Lecturer
Bible Institute of Chicago

TEXT—And they crucified him. Matt. 27:32.

No one can read this story without being struck by the artless manner in which it is told. The writer, it is left to his own wisdom, would have filled page after page, making no mistake, and thus imposing a burden of every kind to heighten the effort. The Spirit of God is the narrator of these events and in the telling the story is told in a way which, however slow may be to his mind, he most delights to tell. And thus he has written down, as a part of Holy Scripture, certain things that transpired, that, wherever the story of the cross should be told, these things must be told in connection therewith.

Let us look at three of these.

The Place. First, then, the place of the crucifixion will speak to us. "And when they were come unto a place called Golgotha, that is to say, the place of a skull," the utter wreck of human wisdom, did they put to death the "Wisdom of God." "For of him are ye to Christ Jesus, who has made unto us wisdom from God."

The world boasts of its wisdom today, boasts of the achievements of science and philosophy, but for the most part it is a wisdom that has found no solution, nor has it taught us anything about God. "The world by wisdom knew not God." And the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness. Herein is the offense of the cross, that it sets aside all of man's wisdom forever, as well as all his glory. The cross is wisdom worshipers, but at Corinth the apostle would know nothing "save Jesus Christ and him crucified," the cross in all its marvelous attractiveness for hearts enlightened from above, in all its intolerable repulsiveness for unregenerate men. Modern rationalism despises the cross, but the humblest believer in it has found it to be what the apostle declares, "The power of God and the wisdom of God."

The Crown of Thorns. The last king of David's line to be crowned at Jerusalem is crowned with thorns. In this story, then, the Spirit of God writes it down, for that crown symbolizes the curse which he has come to put away. In Genesis 3 we read of the curse pronounced upon creation because of man's sin: "Cursed is the ground for thy sake. . . . thorns also and thistles shall it bring forth unto thee." Thorns, then, have become a symbol of the curse of sin, and now we see them on the Savior's brow. "In 'shalt thou eat of it,' but the One who wears the crown of thorns is the 'Man of Sorrows,' saying, as he goes to the cross, 'Now is my soul exceeding sorrowful, even unto death.' 'In the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread,' and of him who hangs on the cross it is written, 'His sweat was as it were great drops of blood falling from him.' So the thorns are telling of his made for us: 'Christ hath delivered us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us, as it is written, cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree.' 'Made a curse! How simple to utter the words; how unutterable the depth of their meaning!"

The Supernatural Darkness. "The darkness sought his woes to hide," is a beautiful hymn which suggests to us a darkness that is not of this world, but a darkness that "darkens over all the land," is witness that God, who is light, has withdrawn his presence from a scene in which he has no part. And it was a faint outward expression of a deeper darkness that pressed upon the Son of Man. And thus his own cry interprets it: "My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?" And there is no answer from God. Where shall we find the answer to that cry of forsaken sorrow? We have but to turn to the Twenty-second Psalm, from which it is quoted, and there we shall find the Holy Ghost answering his own question. "Thou art holy, oh, thou who inhabitest the praises of Israel." God is holy and he turns away. "Thou art of purer eyes than to behold iniquity and canst not look upon sin." Christ in the darkness, Christ forsaken of God is Christ's "made sin." He hath made him to be sin for us. And this was his anguish. He Calvary they take him, as unto the day within the holy city, the bodies of those beasts whose blood is brought into the sanctuary by the high priest for sin, are burned without the camp. "Wherefore Jesus also, that he might sanctify the people with his own blood, suffered without the gate." Christ on Calvary, Christ abandoned in the true offering.

INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By O. B. KELLERS, Acting Director of the Sunday School Course of the Moody Bible Institute, Chicago, Illinois
LESSON FOR SEPTEMBER 5

ELIJAH AND THE PROPHETS OF BAAL

LESSON TEXT—1 Kings 18:20-40. GOLDEN TEXT—Job 41:11. For from the wicked; but he heareth the prayer of the righteous. Prov. 15:1.

Following the lesson of last week we have (ch. 18:1-19) the interesting account of Ahab's search for Elijah, and of the prophet's meeting with Obadiah. Verses 5 and 6 suggest the severity of the drought in the land. Ahab's accusation, "Art thou here, O troubler of Israel," is replied to by Elijah's challenge regarding a contest between himself, the representative of Jehovah, and the king's prophets representing Baal, (vv. 27-35). In accordance with the stipulations the prophets of Baal accepted the challenge and most miserably failed (vv. 26-35). In place of this dramatic contest was Mt. Carmel (see map) and the time probably B. C. 900.

I. Elijah's Preparation vv. 30-35. On Carmel's crown now swarms a countless throng.

With one brave soul to stand for God. "Great millions" in the heart of the prophet. —George L. Taylor.

Elijah gave the 450 prophets of Baal and the 400 priests of the groves (v. 19) every advantage possible that he might the more clearly unmask their error and make more signal their defeat. Their frenzied cries and self-injury continued frantically until 3:00 p. m. Then Elijah announces the details which were to remove all possible doubt as to whose champion he was or who he to answer his petition. (a) He calls the people together (v. 30) drawing them high to God and challenging their undivided attention after the conclusion of the contest. (b) He calls the priests and their confederates to their defense. (c) He constructs the altar, (vv. 30-31). A true and lasting reformation must begin at the altar of God. Restore one in the heart, the home and church and there will return to all unity and strength. Note Elijah's insistence upon an undivided nation, as suggested by the "twelve altar." While any lasting reformation must begin in the individual heart, still it is true and genuine it will work itself out in the nation and in the church. The "prison that prevails with God," who had wrought for their fathers, "who answered Jacob's prayer," is now about to be "fulfilled." This altar was not constructed as a monument to departed one, nor for the ornamentation of the house of God. It was in the first place a place for his glory alone. On this altar Elijah placed his sacrifice.

Again Israel is to prevail over its enemies, this time those who, not those from without. (a) He covered the altar (v. 33, 34) a. e. g., poured water upon it to remove all possible occasion of fraud or imposture. The trench "as great as would contain two measures of seed" (v. 33) is equivalent to six gallons. Three times water was taken from the spring, still water at this place, and poured upon the altar, twelve jars in all again symbolizing the twelve tribes.

(b) Elijah's prayer, vv. 35-37. The great prophet ever could only secure through prayer his desired blessing though its purpose was "that this people may know that thou Lord art God." His prayer was: (a) Addressed to God; (b) Grounded upon experience, that of "Abraham, Isaac and Jacob"; (c) It was for one purpose, the honor of that name; (d) It was to realize his act in calling forth the drought upon Israel as a punishment for the sins of princes, priests and people; (e) It was founded upon the words of Jehovah, to corroborate and to affirm the words done "at thy word"; (f) It was for the conversion of the people, that their hearts might be turned back to Jehovah once more.

Elijah, the man of faith, staked his all upon the Word of God. He gave himself up wholly to the plans and purposes of God, and relied explicitly upon the covenant-keeping God.

II. God's Power, vv. 38-40. We are content to leave the great prophet's fall and that he must have realized the awful catastrophe involving it if it did not fail. Yet he fearlessly makes his plea and the fire fell. It was an accidental stroke of God, man to day refuse to render unto him his shadow and worship. Compare in this connection the fire of God's holy spirit which came upon the apostles and believers at Pentecost, and the resultant convincing power manifested in the people of Jerusalem that the crucified Christ was the son of God.

MEMBER
NATIONAL NEGRO PRESS
ASSOCIATION

TEXAS THIS TIME

An appeal has come to us from a committee representing five hundred colored people of Texas City, Texas. After mentioning the recent devastating storm which swept across the Gulf States, and detailing their sad loss of homes and goods, the committee advises that the Negro population was "forced to work on the streets five days under United States soldiers and at the point of guns"—virtually prisoners. They were forced to work—the Negroes alone, no whites—and without pay. Families were separated, women treated shamefully, the sick denied medical attention, and constitutional rights taken away—all because of color.

That's Texas—the semi-barbarous State which long since made itself a place in the same category with shameful, benighted Georgia.

The appeal is primarily to the American Negro press and church for aid—"money and drygoods." But it includes the statement that these oppressed and wronged American citizens are about to organize a protective association and are going to the courts for justice.

That is the part that we like and wish to emphasize. That has been the burden of our cry through this column for the past year. If only the Negroes would get together for mutual protection—in local organizations affiliated with a great national organization—they could strike an irresistible blow against all forms of oppression and injustice.

The N. A. A. C. P. affords a splendid foundation. It is designed for just this purpose. It needs only the support of the people. It has the machinery, the personnel and the influence, but it has not the people. But it cannot be said to represent the race when thousands know nothing of it and millions are not connected with it.

We repeat what we have said before: Every Negro man and woman in America, young and old, should become at once an active member of this organization. If this were done, or even a majority of us were connected with this association, here would be a weapon which would make the oppressor tremble, and even the government itself yield and guarantee us our full rights.

KEEP UP THE PROTEST

"The Birth of a Nation," the infamous photo-play which libels and humiliates our race, is here. How long it will continue to show we cannot, at the present writing, say. We doubt that this prejudice-ridden city can muster a strong enough sentiment to stop it.

We are glad to commend the efforts of Mayor Kiel and Prosecuting Attorney Sidener on our behalf. We are satisfied that each of these officials did what he could in the premises. A large delegation of representative Negroes waited upon them last Saturday and presented to each in turn a vigorous protest, clearly setting forth the evils of this insidious film and pointing out the dangers of its showing.

The Mayor convinced us of his inability, under existing statutes, to do anything, but pledged his influence, which he immediately exercised. Mr. Sidener promised to forbid the presentation under the threat of prosecution, and he immediately made good his promise.

Meantime, the film representatives secured a temporary injunction, and the production had its opening Sunday evening as scheduled. The Chief of Police sent a committee to witness the performance, both to be on guard against any possible disturbance and to report to him upon the character of the objectionable scenes. The case was to have been heard before Judge Kimmel Monday afternoon, but a continuance was asked until Wednesday. Wednesday saw another continuance.

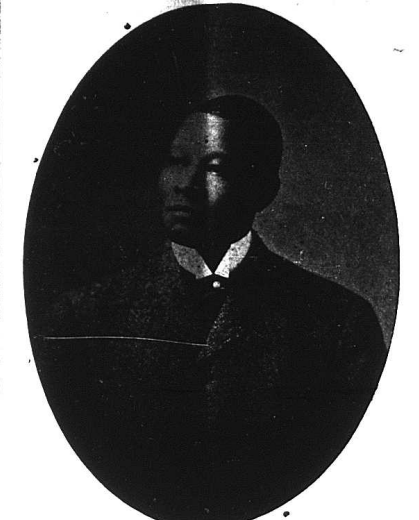

There the matter stands, as we write. We are satisfied with our efforts so far. We feel that the officials above mentioned have done their best up to the present. We feel that our protest was justified and dignified. But by no means ought we to consider ourselves through.

Should the court decide against us and the injunction be made permanent, then what we have done should be considered only the beginning. Our protests should be continuous, firm and dignified. Our aim must be to create a sentiment so strong that the white people can see the justice of our position.

And further, should our protests and our agitation end in no immediate result and no apparent good, we must be broad enough and far-sighted enough to work for the uplift and advancement of the entire race—and not only for this day and generation, but for our posterity.

So the protest and agitation which we have begun we must continue.

ANCIENT UNITED KNIGHTS AND DAUGHTERS OF AFRICA

WILLIAM HERBERT FIELDS

Order in Flourishing Condition—Three Thousand Dollars Voted
For Building in Chicago—
Argus Selected as Official Organ.

The ninth annual session of the National Grand Council Ancient United Knights and Daughters of Africa, which was closed at Peoria, Ill., last week was a very successful and a pleasant one. A large delegation was in attendance from different parts of the United States. Reports of the committee on the "State of the Order" showed that the order by Mr. I. W. Woodson, was the best in every way that we have ever had.

The first selection made was that of a minute clerk. Miss Octavia M. Taylor, a teacher in the public schools of St. Louis, was unanimously selected to fill this office, which she did most efficiently.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: National Grand Master, Wm. H. Fields; National Grand Recorder, Dr. Geo. M. Cathrell; National Grand Treasurer, Ernest Pattillo; National Deputy Grand Master, Rev. S. D. Davis; National Deputy Grand Queen, Mrs. Julia Cordell; State Grand Queen, Mrs. Ada Harris; Chairman of National Executive Board, J. Arthur Freeman, all of St. Louis, National Chaplain, Rev. T. L. Scott, of Chicago; Galloway, secy-treasurer, Juvenile Miss Mayme Taylor has returned looking as round as an apple. Don't trust her on your scales.

Rev. Mrs. Graham, of Edwardsville, Ill., was the guest of Mrs. J. K. Parker last week.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Allen are rejoicing over a fine bouncing boy, which the store left Wednesday.

Mrs. E. Murphy departed Wednesday, accompanying her daughter, Frosty, to school at Lincoln Institute, Jefferson City.

Mrs. Frances Carter has returned from a ten days' visit in Festus, Mo. Mrs. F. Wedding, of 2416 N. Whittier, was the guest at dinner of Miss M. White, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Watkins celebrated their twentieth anniversary on last Saturday evening. They were the recipients of many handsome presents.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Cooper have removed to 6100 Idaho. Also Mrs. Wm. James' new address is 226 Elmwood. They will be glad to see and am many friends.

Mr. Wm. Gray, an old citizen, was buried from Mrs. Sara Arnold's home Tuesday.

PLEASANT GREEN LITERARY

The Moot Court, which took place of the regular program. The case was one wherein Geo. W. Young was charged with the murder of killing Elias Smith. The defense was represented by Messrs. Garfield Cravens and J. C. Cole. The state was represented by Messrs. Parker and Arthur Winston. The jury, after much deliberation, found the defendant guilty of murder in the third degree. J. M. Weil was foreman.

Pleasant Green Literary is enjoying a large patronage. All the departments of the church are moving along nicely.

Rev. J. K. Parker will leave for Chicago, to attend the National Baptist Convention next week. An excellent program will be rendered next Thursday night. The public is invited.

The entertainment given by the Originals Monday night was quite a success. The oration rendered by Mrs. Sweetie Snyder was well delivered. The contest was won by Sister Zenobia Robinson. She will be awarded $500 Sunday night.

HOUSE WARMING PARTY

Dr. F. F. Martyn, pastor of the First Baptist Church, was surprised by his members Tuesday night with a beautiful house warming party.

About one hundred people met quietly outside his home, at 4351 West Belle, and listened to a while as Pastor Martyn sat unobtrusively at his piano amusing himself. Then they started singing "Home, Sweet Home" and rang the bell.

When Mrs. Martyn opened the door, the crowd took the house by storm, lighting up all the rooms and taking full possession.

The dining room was filled with elegant gifts, including beautiful china, ornaments, embroideries, table and bed linen, and a variety of edibles.

The kitchen was also appropriated and the pastor's dishes, and a most dainty refreshment served.

The younger set romped through the spacious residence, and had a big time. The pastor played several selections upon his handsome carved wood piano, and all went away feeling satisfied that their pastor's beautiful residence is worthy of the position and prestige of old "Mother Church."

H. A. Smith, tailor and men's furnisher at 2343 Market St., has received a new shipment of the latest patterns in gent's tailoring goods and is better prepared than ever before to supply the trade. This store does its own tailoring and invites those having own goods to have same made up into suits, guaranteeing perfect fit and workmanship. Now is the time to select fall wear, and have the old garments cleaned and repaired. Men and persons desiring reliable service should visit Mr. Smith's store, the only one conducted by a negro in this city, or phone Bomont 1594; Central 9418.

At Last I Am Handling My Own Pianos

CHAS. H. WATKINS

To the Public:

I am now handling my own pianos, own and manage my own store, and am in a position to compete in prices and quality with the largest piano dealers in this or any other city. I offer here a list of names of persons who have purchased pianos from me during the month of July: Dr. Breddlove, 2038 Market; Julius Harris, Leffingwell Market; Mrs. Wagner, 2344 Lawton; Mr. Baird, No. 19 22nd St.; Miss Rebecca Johnson, 2229 Laclede; Edw. Dix, 2644 Lawton; Miss Lenora Hayes, 2015 Chestnut; Mrs. Anna Franklin, 3017 Adams; Miss Ora Lightning, 2219 Market.

If the Negro continues to patronize me, I will be in position to employ many of the younger ones in the future, who will be in the year 1916 should be quite profitable. We must stop carrying our money to the white man begging him to take it, when our own color is in every kind of business and commercial competition, begging our support. Every dollar we take from our own race and spend with the white man is a stumblingblock in our road of progress.

I have pianos ranging from $50 to $1,000. Also cabinet talking machines $150 up. Call Bomont 1792 W, or call at my store.

IN MEMORIAM

Mrs. Hattie Willis, a well-known citizen of St. Louis, departed this life, August 21, 1915, at Kinloch, Mo., after a brief illness of a few hours, having passed three score years, and in the face of 60, when she seemed to be enjoying well spent years. Looking back over the past and reviewing the motherhood of eleven children, that terror of all terrors claimed her in the heyday of her victory to see the hours of a mother's triumph as six of her children had reached their maturity, leaving these to mourn their loss. Mesdames Ella Tomlin, Lucinda Robinson, Pinkie C. Lewis, Messrs. J. D. Willis, Jesse T. Willis and Edw. Willis, having pleased the heavenly Father to call her from them in their bereavement, they extend heartfelt thanks to their many friends for the letters of sympathy and tokens of respect rendered.

The world is rich to deeds unknown. All fire to radical and selfish ends. But those who serve a nation live. Remain quiet until the day of strife.

3 IN ONE OILS.
CLEANS. POLISHES.
PREVENTS RUST

3-In-One is a light, pure oil compound that never gums, typewriters, bicycles, clocks, guns, lawnmowers—everything that ever needs oiling in your home or office. No grease. No acid. A little 3-In-One on a self-cleaning and polishes perfectly all varnished or varnished furniture and woodwork.
Sprinkled on a yard of black cheese cloth it makes an ideal dusting cloth.
3-In-One absolutely prevents rust on gun barrels, auto fixtures, bell fixtures, gas ranges, everything metal, indoors or out, in any climate. It sticks into the unseen metal pores and forms a protecting "crust" which stays on and keeps the metal from rusting.

3-In-One is sold in all good stores in 3-oz. bottles (1 oz.), 25c (3 oz.), 50c (5 oz., 1/2 pint). Also in new painted hard Oil Can (5 oz., 35c).

THEATRES

AT THE BOOKER WASHING-TON THIS WEEK

Edgar Connor and Cecil Mann, Joe Mandy Russell, Arthur Allen and a White Act Up to the High-Grade Mark.

The high standard of good shows still continues at the Booker Washington Theatre this week, despite the failure of Abbie Mitchell to show up.
Mr. Turpin was compelled to book a white act, Billie Louise, to fill the engagement, the first half of the week and a white comedy team, Towers and Howard for the latter half.

Miss Louise made good with four song numbers and a very acceptable back-swing dance.
Joe and Mandy Russell get the audience from the start with a lively song and dance that is characterized by Mr. Russell's eccentric dancing.
They have a humorous line of new rip-roaring jokes. Russell's imitations of a monkey take the house by storm. Both performers are good original dancers and are making a decided hit this week.

Arthur Allen, and his violin are the prime knockout drops. After a little nonsense, Allen gets going good with a telephone song, and is at high speed when he introduces "This Violin."
He follows with "Misericord," accompanied by burlesque variations and closes with a version of the "Memphis Blues." He is forced to take several bows and an encore at each performance.

Edgar Connor (the original Sambo) and dainty little Cecil Mann close the bill with their characteristic style of dancing and singing. These delightful little performers are meriting vociferous applause. "Sambo" scores nicely singing, "When the Darkies Serenade," with which he does an artistic dance. "Miss Mandy" puts over "Crude Papa" to satisfaction and they close with "Dinah," a conversation song and dance.

Mess Cecil Mann was married last Saturday in Crown Point, Ill., to Clyde B. Gains, who conducts an automobile service in Chicago. The little actress is full of blushes this week.

Arthur Allen and LeRoy Morton are booked up to play on white time this season. Mrs. Elmer Wilson, Morton will accompany the team.

Joe and Mandy Russell will be seen as leading characters in a new five-reel picture, "A Stranger in New York," just launched.

Miss Susie Sutton is resting at home, in Washington, D. C., after a tour of the West.

Jack Johnson is the central figure in a big white musical comedy company playing in London, Eng.

Tim Moore is having trouble in the East on account of jumping contracts. Andrew Trebble is also in the same boat.

Salem Tutt Whitney and the Smart Set Company started rehearsals last week for their new show, "George Washington Bullion Abroad."

Musical comedy companies are making a raid on the vaudeville stages and we may see several good productions at the Booker Washington this season.

MOVIE THEATER BEING EX- TENSIVELY REMODELED

The Movie Theater, on Market Street, near Jefferson, is being extensively remodeled. Aside from a new and artistic front, the roof is being raised several feet to permit a ventilation arrangement, that will make the place as sanitary as any in the city. The new seats will be raised so that those in the rear seats will be able to see with as much comfort as occupants of the front seats.
Manager, Tommie James, says he is arranging to give his patrons the best series of pictures offered in the city for 5 cents. The "Exploits of Elaine" will be resumed and "The Goddess," a Vitaphone Picture, will be featured in the re-opening. The repairs will take about two weeks' time. It was originally planned to begin in July, but the management delayed on account of the serial pictures which were running. Watch the Argus for the re-opening date.

SPECIAL: See the Pathe Weekly, first-run pictures, at the Comet Theatre, Tuesdays and Fridays.

Dr. Chas. H. Phillips, Jr., has moved his office to the southeast corner of Compton and Laclede Aves., second floor.

When giving a party, entertainment or celebration, make your cards. Adams, 1234 Market.
